LOCAL MATTERS.

For the Middle Atlantic States increasing cloudiness with occasional rains, southerly to westerly winds, slightly cooler weather, lower barometer.

OFF FOR CAMP.—The A. L. I., 40 strong, under command of Capt. G. A. Mushbach, left here on a special train on the V. M. R. W. at 7:30 o'clock this morning for Lynchburg, where they will go into camp with the Third Virginia Regiment. The members wore their new uniforms and presented a very handsome appearance, each man looking every inch a soldier. They were followed to the depot by a large number of friends who wished them a pleasant trip and who expect to hear glowing accounts of their soldierly bearing during the encampment. They, with the other companies of the regiment, will be met at Lynchburg by the officers who are there, the Home Guard, Artillery Blues and the Lynchburg band. The artillery will fire a salute, after which the companies will be formed into line and march through the principal streets of the city to the base of Court House Hill, where Mayor Manson will deliver an address of welcome, which will be responded to by Col. Wertebaker. The march will then be resumed to the fair grounds, where the men will go into camp.

The A. L. I. (Co. F) and company D are provided with tents, which have been erected. The remaining six companies will be quartered in the Exhibition Hall.

On Thursday, at 5 o'clock p. m., the competitive drill for the prize cup will take place. The rifle contest will occur on the race-track on Friday at 10 a. m. A hop will be given at Hebbig's Park every night during the week, and other amusements will be provided for the soldiery.

The Lynchburg Virginian in speaking of the encampment says: "The Alexandria Light Infantry is one of the crack companies of the Regiment, and it has been preparing thoroughly for the encampment. The company will make a good appearance, and is going to make a strong effort to take off the first prize."

FIRST WARD CLUB.—At a called meeting of the First Ward Club and Hendricks club, held at the Concordia, on Saturday night, the invitation from the Cleveland and Hendricks Working club to participate in the ratification meeting and torch light procession on Wednesday night was accepted, and the proper committees to make necessary arrangements were appointed. Messrs. Wm. Dobie and B. H. Lambert were selected marshals for the parade, and Messrs. W. W. Herbert, J. T. Hill and Hubert Snowden were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions in aid of the club.

The executive committee reported that they had secured the building association rooms in Concordia Hall, as the permanent meeting place, that the meetings would be held every Thursday night at 8 o'clock, and that the rooms would be open every night for the members, except Sunday.

On motion of Maj. Geo. Duffley it was resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to canvass the ward, commencing at the southwest corner of Prince and Pitt streets, thence running southwardly to the city limits, thence easterly to Jones' Point, northwardly to Prince street, up Prince to the beginning, and ascertain the names of the democratic voters in the ward.

The chairman appointed George Duffley, Hubert Snowden, Edgar Thompson, Charles Moore and John Pomeroy on the committee.

A large number of names was added to the roll of the club.

Johnston, former rector of St. Paul's Church, whose serious illness was mentioned in Saturday's GAZETTE, died at her home, on Prince street, on Saturday night, in the 86th year of her age. The deceased lady had a host of friends and acquaintances, all of whom, (though her life had been prolonged considerably above the allotted three score and ten) will be grieved to hear of her death.

A telegram received here from Baltimore this evening says that Mrs. Reuben Johnston died at Towson, Md., last night, and that her remains will be brought to this city to-morrow evening for interment.

It has at last secured more commodious quarters and is prepared to accommodate increased patronage, which we are glad to learn is expected. The school has been very successful in the past and members its alumni in almost every State in the Union.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Friday last Jas. E. Taylor, a resident of Lee district, Fairfax county, came to this city and purchased a coal oil barrel, which is supposed to have contained about half a gallon of oil. When he arrived at his home, and it is supposed, when under the influence of liquor, he set fire to the barrel by applying a match, when it exploded and partly tore off the arm of his sister, who was standing near. It is feared that the arm of the unfortunate girl will have to be amputated.

A Brutal Negro Lynched.

A dispatch from Orange C. H., Va., dated yesterday says: "Shortly after midnight yesterday a small band of mounted men quietly made their way to the little jail in the county of Rappahannock, forced an entrance, roused up from his slumbers John Fitzhugh, a brawny negro, and informed him that he must prepare for a speedy death at their hands. Despite the efforts of the jailer to prevent them the mob seized their prisoner and hurried him from his cell to the woods. A noise was arranged and in a jiffy Fitzhugh was dangling to the limb of a big oak tree. The negro's crime was an attempt to commit an outrage upon a highly respectable married lady of Rappahannock county. Last Sunday, while at a colored church near the home of the lady upon whom he made the dastardly attempt, Fitzhugh saw the husband of his intended victim leave home in the company of a neighbor. Hastening to his cabin close by Fitzhugh armed himself with an old revolver and hurried to the house of the gentleman. As he expected, he found the wife alone, sitting on the porch, with her infant in her arms. The negro made an infamous proposal to her and followed it up by approaching her side. She sprang to her feet, pushed the negro off the porch and rushed to the house, screaming for help. A youth who happened to be passing heard her calls and forced his way into the house. Fitzhugh was driven off, but he left sullenly. The lad remained for a short time. The negro watched his movements, and when he thought the lad had got well out of the way again returned to the house. The young man, however, had kept a sharp watch on him, and was at the house in time to afford further protection to the lady. Fitzhugh was finally forced to leave the premises. His fiendish attack caused intense excitement in the neighborhood where the affair occurred. It was expected at the time that the outraged people would visit speedy and rigorous punishment on the offender. It is said that Fitzhugh, as soon as he was confronted by the mob last night, made a full confession of his crime. He begged to be spared, and promised if permitted to live, to mend his ways and never depart from the path of rectitude."

EDUCATIONAL.

ST. JOHN'S ACADEMY,

THE MILITARY SCHOOL, AT ALEXANDRIA.

The fifty-second year will begin on MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 1st, and end about the 25th of June, 1885.

The barracks on Prince street having, notwithstanding three enlargements, become too small to accommodate the increasing patronage, the large building on Duke and Columbus streets, erected for the old Alexandria High School, has been leased, and will be used in connection with them. The spacious grounds there will give ample room for recreation and drill and the room system will be substituted for the dormitory.

The school is fully equipped with apparatus, cabinets, library, &c., and its past success is an earnest of its future usefulness. The Principal has had nearly forty years experience in the management of boys and young men, and is aided by young and competent assistants. The proverbial healthfulness of Alexandria, its pure water, and its great accessibility, eminently fit it for school purposes.

Board and tuition for school year, $200. Send for Catalogue to RICHARD L. CARNE, A. M., Principal.
